ARTICLE 14

SENIORITY

Section 14.1 Seniority for benefits shall be defined as the length of time an employee has continuously been employed "on site" in the collective bargaining unit. Seniority for overtime and layoffs shall be based on the length of time an employee has been continuously employed in a job classification "on site." The Employer shall maintain one (1) seniority list for all operations covered by this Agreement. Seniority shall be on site basis. An employee's site seniority shall commence after the completion of his/her probationary period and shall be retroactive to the date of hire. During such promotion, bargaining unit members will continue to accrue all types of seniority in all lower job classifications.

Any bargaining unit member who accepts a permanent promotion to supervision outside of the bargaining unit, shall have thirty (30) days in which to return to the bargaining unit with no loss of seniority.

Any employee removed from a permanent supervisory position through no fault of his/her own shall be eligible to fill a regular bargaining unit position, if said vacancy exists. 7. An employee gives a false reason for a leave of absence or engages in other employment; or
8. An employee is removed from the Site by the Government for any reason, and/or loses his/her credentials necessary to work on the Site. This will not be grievable.

9. If there is an Administrative issue that causes an employee to lose their credentials and later those issues are resolved, the employee can be reinstated at his/her current seniority status.

Section 14.3 Seniority will continue to accrue during a layoff and approval of absence.

ARTICLE 15

LAYOFFS

Section 15.1 In the event of a layoff, probationary employees shall be laid off first without regard to their individual periods of employment. Probationary employees shall not accrue seniority while on layoffs and shall have no recall rights.

Section 15.2 Non-probationary employees shall be the next to be laid off on the basis of site seniority, skill, ability and qualifications to perform the available work. Where factors are equal, seniority shall govern.

Section 15.3 When a vacancy arises, the Employer shall recall employees on the basis of site seniority, skill, ability and qualifications to perform the available work. Where factors are equal, seniority shall govern.

Section 15.4 An employee shall continue to retain recall rights for a twelve (12) month period or length of employment, whichever is less, commencing from the date of the layoff.

Extensions by both parties must be made in writing or e-mail/fax.

The meeting shall be attended by the grievant, the Union's President, the Employer's Vice President of Labor Relations or her designee. The Employer shall give a written response to the grievance within ten (10) workdays after the Step 3 meeting.

Should the grievance remain unsettled after the Step 3 meeting and receipt of the Employer's answer, the Union may, by written request, refer the grievance to arbitration. The written request must be made by the President of the Union within ten (10) workdays after the Step 3 answer is received in order to be timely submitted to arbitration.

Section 16.4 It is the intention of the parties that the time limitations and the requirements of the grievance procedure be rigidly followed. An untimely grievance shall not be considered by the arbitrator. Any dispute or grievance not processed or appealed by the Union within the time limits set forth in any Step shall be considered settled on the basis of the Employer's last preceding answer.

Section 17.3

The arbitrator's authority shall be limited to finding a direct violation of the express purpose of this Agreement or provisions in question rather than an implied or indirect purpose. The arbitrator shall have no authority to modify the discipline imposed unless it can be demonstrated that the Company failed to follow progressive discipline or that the Company did not have "just cause" to impose either suspension or termination. The impartial arbitrator shall have no authority to modify, amend, revise, add to or subtract from any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement. The hearing will be conducted pursuant to the Federal Rules of Evidence.

Section 17.4 The arbitrator shall have no power to establish or change wage rates or wage scales.

Section 17.5 The compensation of the arbitrator and his expenses, incidental to the arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties. Each party shall bear the expense of preparing its case and shall make arrangements for, and the expenses of, witnesses called by them.

ARTICLE 25

SAVINGS CLAUSE

Should any part of this Agreement or any provision herein contained be rendered or declared invalid by reason of any existing or subsequently enacted legislation or by a decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidation of such part or portion of this Agreement shall not invalidate the remaining portions hereof. Remaining parts or provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

ARTICLE 26

SUCCESSORS & ASSIGNS

The parties agree that this Agreement shall apply to and bind all successors and assigns of the Employer. Continued compliance with this Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) shall be a term and conditions of any sale, transfer of assets or assignment of assets by the Employer, and of any succession by another contractor to the Employer's contract with the Government, all in accordance with the Service Contract Act of 1965, as amended.

ARTICLE 27

a) Any rules, regulations or directives, which are now in effect, or which may be later imposed upon the Company by its Client, the DHS/FPS, or any other Governmental Agency having jurisdiction will apply with equal force and effect to the employees hereunder. In agreeing with this Article, the Union is in no way waving its rights to review and to recommend changes which they deem necessary and to enter into expedited bargaining, if applicable. Employees are also required to adhere to Company Rules and Regulations, including S.O.P. 358, Administration of Discipline , notwithstanding any possible conflict with any provisions of the Agreement.

b) Copies of Rules and Regulations so imposed will be made available to the Union upon request.

ARTICLE 28

DRUG AND ALCOHOL POLICY

The Parties recognize that in the security business, the use of controlled substances or alcohol which cause intoxication or impairment on-the-job poses risks to the Employer, the affected employee, his/her co-workers, and the public. An employee cannot perform his/her work adequately if he/she is under the influence of illegal drugs or alcohol, and an employee under the influence of drugs or alcohol also presents danger to himself/herself and to others. Unlawful use of drugs and the abuse of alcohol when not on duty raise serious questions concerning the employee's competency to perform security work and is grounds for revocation of his/her firearms permit. It is the Employer's policy to maintain a drug-free workplace. The Employer and the Union agree to the Drug and Alcohol Policy.

ARTICLE 29

TRAINING AND RE-QUALIFICATION

Section 29.1 The Employer agrees to pay employees who are required to re-qualify with a weapon on a firing range for up to four (4) hours at the employee's normal hourly rate of pay and one-half (1/2) hour for travel to and from the range facility at the employee's normal rate of pay for the first attempt only. The Employer further agrees to pay employees who are required to take government mandated training and retaining courses at the regular rates of pay provided by this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that an employee is required to take a repeat training course or is required to make a second attempt to qualify with a weapon because the employee failed to attain a sufficiently high score to be re-qualified, the Employer shall not be obligated to pay the employee for such courses or additional weapons range time.

Section 29.2 The Employer shall schedule employees to be re-qualified at least one (1) month prior to the expiration of their weapons permit. The Employer shall afford to employees the opportunity to have at least one (1) practice session prior to any formal re-qualification test.

All qualification and re-qualification procedures shall be conducted in accordance with DHS/FPS guidelines and procedures. Subject to DHS/FPS guidelines and procedures, the employee shall be given two (2) opportunities to qualify prior to the expiration date of his/her weapons permit. If the employee is unable to re-qualify prior to the expiration of his/her weapons permit or fails to pass a range qualification test twice before such time, the employee shall be laid off without pay for a maximum of forty-five (45) days. Such employee shall be reinstated after re-qualifying. An employee laid off pursuant to this provision shall accrue seniority or fringe benefits during his/her period of layoff. If the person does not re-qualify after the forty-five (45) day layoff period, such action will be considered as a voluntary quit.

a) The Employer shall schedule, in a timely manner, full-time and part-time employees to obtain any annual government required physical examination at no expense to the employee (only for one examination). If an employee does not appear for or obtain his/her government-required physical examination prior to the time by which it must be obtained, the employee shall be suspended as in Section 29.2 above. If the employee does not satisfactorily pass his/her physical within the period of time specified above, the employee shall be considered as having voluntarily quit.

b) Subject to DHS/FPS requirements and rules, the employee shall have two (2) opportunities to pass the physical examination. If the employee fails to do so or fails to report for a scheduled examination (unless such failure to report is the result of a documented emergency circumstance), the employee shall be terminated. Failure to maintain physical fitness standards could result in employee termination.

Section 29.4 If an employee does not successfully complete and pass his/her government-required DHS/FPS, first aid and/or CPR examination prior to the time by which such examination must be taken and passed, the employee shall be laid off as in Section 29.2 above. If the employee does not satisfactorily pass his/her first aid and/or CPR examination within the period of time specified above, the employee shall be placed on layoff status until such time as the employee is administered the examination(s) and passes same. The employee shall have two (2) opportunities to pass the first aid and/or CPR examination. If the employee fails to do so or fails to report for a scheduled examination (unless such failure to report is the result of a documented emergency circumstance), the employee shall be terminated.

Section 29.5 The Employer shall provide employees, at least ninety (90) days prior to expiration of their DHS/FPS handgun permit, such forms as are required by the DHS/FPS for the renewal of such permit. Employees are expected to return such forms, including the range qualification form, completed together with any necessary photographs and fingerprint specimens within ten (10) days thereafter. The Employer shall promptly submit the completed forms, photographs, and fingerprint specimens to the DHS/FPS. If the employee does not submit to the Employer the completed forms, photographs, and fingerprint specimens within the aforementioned period and, as a result of the employee's delay, the employee's permit lapses, the employee shall be suspended without pay until the permit is received. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the employee fails to provide the completed forms, photographs, and fingerprint specimens within thirty (30) days of his/her receipt of the forms from the Employer, the employee shall be deemed to have quit voluntarily. In the event the Employer fails to submit completed forms, photos and fingerprint specimens to the appropriate agency and the employee's permit lapses because of such delay, the employee may be reassigned without loss of pay pending the issuance of the permit providing an opening exists.
