TRIALS AND HEARINGS

Haddad v. BOP, 95-CV-73129-DT, E.D. Mich., FCI Milan

Haddad is the inmate that took it upon himself to travel to Mayo Clinic after the doctor he was seeing while at a halfway house said he should be seen by the physician who provided the original heart valve. When the inmate returned from this unauthorized trip to Mayo Clinic, he was written an incident report and returned to FCI Milan. After the incident report was expunged, the inmate filed a Mandamus action requesting the court to order the BOP to return him to the halfway house. The hearing was held on November 16, 1995, and the Judge ruled in the BOP's favor. Originally, the BOP had charged the inmate with in-operative time for the 10 days he was at Mayo Clinic. This ten days was later restored and counted toward time served.
