Narrative

Reporting Officer observed the Hispanic male in possession of an alcoholic beverage along the north side of the parking lot and the following details were then obtained regarding this public intoxication call

The male was identified as Pedro Gonzales Jr, DOB 02-17-56 and during the course of the interview the male was noted to display signs of intoxication such as red blood shot eyes, an odor of an alcoholic beverage on or about his person, and an unsteady balance.

The male indicated that he was just at the location resting and indicated that no one asked him to leave the location. Due to the male's intoxicated state it was determined that he was a danger to himself and the public if allowed to walk away while being in close proximity to vehicular traffic. Since the subject could not be released to a responsible party he was arrested for public intoxication at approximately 1437 hours.

Reporting Officer made contact with reporter Pauline Smith who was found to be employed by the apartment complex as an assistant manager. The reportee provided the male a criminal trespass warning since the subject did not reside at the location and the male was constantly intoxicated and harassing the tenants.

The subject indicated that he understood the warning and the consequences if he returned back to the location.

The male was then transported to the City Jail and booked on the municipal charge.

This report was then completed.

Narrative

Harris. I passed by the business and observed a male sitting in the back of a pickup truck (TX Reg. 84M PB4) parked in the lot. The business was closed and the truck had been parked there all night.

I turned my patrol car around and as I did, I observed the suspect duck back down in the truck in an attempt to hide. I exited my vehicle and approached the truck and the suspect, identified as Gonzales, Pete Jr (W/M 02/17/56), was attempting to stand up. I asked the suspect why he was in the back of the truck and he stated the owner had just given him a ride and he was waiting.

I advised the suspect to get out of the back of the truck and walk over to me. I observed that Pete was shaking and could barely maintain his balance as he was walking through the bed of the truck. I observed Pete's eyes to be bloodshot and watery and his speech was extremely slurred.

Pete climbed down out of the back of the truck and I had to catch him from falling over. I took hold of Pete's hands and tried to place them on top of his head to pat him down for weapons. As I was attempting to place Pete's hands on top of his head, his arms began shaking and he stiffened his body. I told Pete to relax and place his hands on his head and he pulled his arms away. I told Pete he was under arrest and grabbed hold of his hands again. Pete again tried to pull his arms away and push me off of him.

Officer Buckaloo came over to assist in the arrest and we both attempted to leg sweep Pete to take him to the ground. Pete was pulled to the ground and he began kicking, striking Officer Buckaloo several times in the legs. Pete rolled over onto his back and pushed both officers away from him and continued to pull his arms free. We administered several knee strikes and elbow strikes to Pete's back and thighs and ordered him to stop resisting. Pete grabbed hold of my legs and pants and attempted to knock me over and spun around and kicked me in the leg.

I continued to administer knee strikes to Pete and ordered him to stop resisting and place his hands behind his back. Officer Buckaloo also ordered Pete to stop resisting and roll over onto his stomach. Pete again pushed both officers back and rolled onto his stomach but put his arms under his body near his waistband as if possibly reaching for a weapon. Officer Buckaloo and I were finally able to physically force Pete's hands from under his body and place him under arrest. At no time did Pete obey any of the orders given to him by Officer Buckaloo or I.

I helped Pete onto his feet and began walking him to the patrol vehicle. Pete was stumbling and shaking and was unable to walk without assistance. As I was escorting Pete by the arm, he tripped over a median, causing me to lose my grip on his arm, and he fell forward bumping his head. Officer Buckaloo and I assisted Pete back to his feet and carried him to the patrol car.

I contacted the DA's office and spoke to ADA Greco, who advised they would accept charges for resisting arrest. I transported Pete to the police station for booking procedures where he requested medical attention and Sgt Spiller was advised of the incident. Medic 2 responded to the jail and administered medical attention. Pete was released to the jail officers without further incident. I completed a Use of Force report and filed charges through DIMS.
