Dear ^{Mr.} Chairman Genachowski:

I accept an invitation to join a campaign to fight back, fight against, fight ~~it~~ off & against. The high costs of prison calls are financial, wear outs, discouragement & encourage restricting calls. The right to communicate to keep a "happy" cell-house includes those outside of it, too. Collect calls are a right, entitlement & privilege that cruel, unusual, or excess worry warts should back the hell off from interfering with. An individualist considers this year an inconvenient time to be quoting scripture, however it's unavoidable. Matthew 25:1-12 comes to mind, in which 5 foolish bridesmaids were told

Re; Global Tel Link "Abusive Practices"

Dear Chairman Julius Genachowski:

I am writing to voice mine and my family and friends feelings of being used, held up actually, by our prison's phone service, Global Tel Link. Their actions are nothing less than taking advantage of people; in fact, taking an unfair advantage over a "captive audience", (literally) that have no other avenues of relief. It's extortion.

If loved ones long to talk with their loved ones and vice versa they are "forced" to pay exorbitant, even usurious like rates.

Global Tel Link should be advised that a judge has already pronounced punishment and fine. It is not Global Tel Links place to allot additional punishment and fines, let alone, against a prisoner's family and friends.

Chairman Genachowski, we certainly wish you our best in rectifying this abusive practice that is being inflicted on our families and friends by Global Tel Link whose only real motive seems to be—Just Because They Can.

Thank you for your concern and help with this matter.

Respectfully,

Michael E. Tenore

P.S., Perhaps a team or task force should follow the money.

RE: This is a public comment for the Wright Petition (CC Docket #96-128).

Dear Mr. Genachowski:

I have been incarcerated in the Federal Bureau of Prisons for close to 12 years now. The cost of making a phone call is way to expensive for me and those with me considering that working in prison does not pay much at all.

Since my criminal sentence ended November 22, 2006, and I was detained civilly for 5.5 years before being civilly committed I have still had to phone the high cost of making a phone call here at FCI Butner I Medium. The cost of a phone call from a federal facility is .23/minute for long distance and maybe a few cents cheaper if the call is local. International calls cost .99 a minute and this creates a burden for those with families who are not in the United States.

I would urge you and the FCC to take control of the price gouging that is being done on the cost of phone calls for those who are incarcerated throughout the United States. The cost of calls has forced my family to eliminate the ability to receive collect calls because the cost ended up being almost $10.00 per call.

Thank you for your time and efforts in considering this problem.

Sincerely,

Thomas Shane Matherly

The relevancy is that caught prisoners ~~feel intimate~~ ^{are dont} now what to think, whether intimidation, threat or warning. My Pin# to authorize calls ~~fell~~ ^{fell} into the hand(s) of my bunkbed mate, ~~they~~. My brother has been called, & he can't be sure who it is until he accepts the collect call.

Twice, he's talked to an inmate or 2 & felt empathy or sympathy as insensitive commentary was aimed at him. There's a connection charge when he picks up, & then per minute I surmise. Now, he quote, "doesn't want to get involved with whoever's calling from the IDUC, but fortunately hasn't blocked ^{my} calls. The ~~calls~~ ^{costs} are split between monetary reserves he has of mine, & his own bacon from employment. He's not going to visit, and has devoured all his energizers as enmity in his household ^{is abusing} ~~is~~ bugging him at the same damn time of the calls.*

I am one step from being told, "Go away! It's too late," despite being prepared & awake (Matthew 25:13, New Testament, Bible). ~~by DIRECTLY~~
