

Non-lethal weapon

Post-Crescent photo by Kristyna Wertz-Graff

APPLETON POLICE OFFICER Lt. Ed Danoski falls to the ground after receiving a shock from the department's Taser gun during a demonstration

Tuesday. The "less-lethal" weapon, which gives off a 50,000-volt shock, is a new tool to help police apprehend suspects without causing injury.