TO: Belinda D. Stewart
Superintendent

FROM: Kelly Kelly
Correctional Investigator

SUBJECT: CASE 09-41-04F01

On August 19, 2004, Intelligence and Investigation Unit received an e-mail from Correctional Chief Investigator Timothy Thrasher, Shelton Correction Center. He stated that he received word from his IMU Lieutenant that his niece who is currently on supervision and was released from WCCW on 6-21-2004 is currently dating a Correctional Officer from the facility.

[REDACTED]

When offender [REDACTED] was returned to the facility on a violation I met with her and questioned her as to whether or not she had been in contact with one of the officers that work at WCCW outside of the facility. She stated no and went on to tell me "these bitches here don't like the fact that I'm the one who's painting the officer's office." She said she spent a lot of time in the office. I asked her why someone would report this and she said that maybe it was one of friends. When I asked why her friend would make something like this up and could I get in contact with that friend - she responded that her friend [REDACTED] was mad at her and that she didn't know her whereabouts because she was on the run. She then said that [REDACTED] said she would get back at her.

Shortly after this, another offender approached me and told me that Ms. [REDACTED] had been inquiring as to what staffs were working in MSU, specifically Officer Brooks. I continued monitoring her telephone calls. On September 8, 2004, she made a call to her mother she specifically asked her mom to get her address book and stated on the phone "look under the B's - don't say the name - just give me the number." Her mother gave the following number [REDACTED]

On September 9, 2004, the offender was being released and I met her in the Reception Unit before she was being released, I asked her to empty her bag on the table at which time I found a blank kite with the phone number above written on it. I then questioned her about whose number was on the kite and she stated it belonged to Officer Brooks. I asked her why did she have Officer Brooks number, she said she was going to have him pick her up.

Ms. [REDACTED] said that she had met officer Brooks sometime in the early part of August, in front of a restaurant in Tacoma. She said they talked for a little while and exchanged phone numbers before they parted ways. She stated that she spoke with officer Brooks 2-3 times before meeting again in July at a McDonalds in Centralia, Washington. She said they left McDonalds and went to his apartment in Lakewood. While at his apartment they listened to music and drank a couple of rum and cokes. Then later that evening they went out to a bar (wasn't sure of the bars name,) danced and listened to music. Ms. [REDACTED] said that before the bar closed they left and returned to his apartment where she drank several rum and cokes. I asked if officer Brooks drank. She couldn't remember if he drank or not. Then she said she stayed overnight at his apartment and that they had intercourse several time throughout the evening. The next morning he drove her back to her house in Centralia. I asked her what type of vehicle he drove her home in and she said a black Acura.

I asked if he had any pictures around his apartment. She said there were family pictures. Then I asked what color of furniture did officer Brooks have. She said his couches were black.

Ms. [REDACTED] said Officer Brooks called her in the middle part of August and left a voice message to call him. She said she returned his call, he told her he needed to talk, but they didn't see or talk to each other after that.

Correctional Officer Bernardo, Brooks

Due to additional information received by the I & I office, I met with Officer Brooks a second time on September 10, 2004. I explained to him that during the previous investigation we received additional information of his involvement with an offender on supervision. The following is the questions that I asked Officer Brooks in the presence of Correctional Chief Investigator Steven Baxter and Sergeant Rodney Nordby as his Shop Steward.

- The number that I/M [REDACTED]'s mother gave her was verified as the number belonging to Officer Brooks. CO Brooks had no explanation for an inmate having his cell phone number. CO Brook has since changed his number.
- I/M [REDACTED] made allegations that she had talked with CO Brooks and had dated him one time ending in having intercourse several times in the course of the night. I/M [REDACTED] could describe his apartment and the furniture in it. I/M [REDACTED] described a car that he has admitted driving CO Brook had no explanation for an inmate having this information about him or his property.

Per our conversation I am giving p a couple of more days to contact me as she had tried late last week when I was on vacation. I've received some news from family members that p isn't doing well so she is most likely avoiding me. I will request a warrant Wed or Thurs, depending on any more info I get on her. If and when I have contact with her I will immediately call or page you. Take care. Jim

I was informed by Officer Guebelle that she was very concern about the way her shift partner(Officer Brooks) left the unit today. Officer Guebelle expressed that some black inmates were trying to make a racial issue about what happened. Told Officer Guebelle to continue to maintain her professionalism.

Thanks!!!!!!!
