SUBJECT: Staff Misconduct RE: CO Michael Crockett

Synopsis: On 1/29/03 during the course of another investigation, chrono entries on Inmate (I/M) [REDACTED] DOC# [REDACTED] were brought up and it was discovered that she had reported to her CCO on 1/17/03 that she was pregnant by a WCCW Officer. This information was reported to Acting superintendent Dianne Doonan who reported it to Superintendent Belinda Stewart. I/M [REDACTED] CCO John Tulloch (360-748-2183, ext. 229) of the Chehalis Community Corrections Office was contacted and an appointment with I/M [REDACTED] was scheduled for Friday 1/31/03.

Investigative Interviews:

Inmate [REDACTED] DOC# [REDACTED] - Inmate [REDACTED] was interviewed on 1/31/03 by Investigators Baxter and Kelly at the Chehalis CCO office/M [REDACTED] stated that she was pregnant by an officer at WCCW. I/M [REDACTED] at first refused to disclose the name of the officer and just stated that he was African-American, graying hair, married and in his late thirties or early forties. I/M [REDACTED] later changed this age to in his forties. During the interview with I/M [REDACTED] she finally stated that the officer in question was CO Crockett. I/M [REDACTED] stated that she had run into CO Crockett in Seattle, gave him her phone number and later met with him and had sex. At this point in the interview Investigator Kelly continued the interview alone. (See attached report.)

Staff Misconduct RE: CO Crockett

CO Crockett: was interviewed on 1/31/03 and refuted any contact with Inmate [REDACTED]. On the day in question 12/18/02 CO Crockett states that it was his day off and he worked all day volunteering at the Lakewood Community Corrections. A Check with that Office showed he had only worked until 1200 or 1300 hrs. that day. When asked why he thought I/M [REDACTED] might be making these allegations against him CO Crockett stated that it might be because he had infringed her and I/M [REDACTED] after catching them in the education bldg. bathroom last year.

Inmate [REDACTED] DOC# [REDACTED] was interviewed and stated that CO Crockett had been interested in I/M [REDACTED] while she was here and was jealous of the relationship between herself and [REDACTED]. I/M [REDACTED] stated that on the day that I/M [REDACTED] had greensheeted that CO Crockett had tried to give [REDACTED] his phone number. [REDACTED] had refused the offer. I/M [REDACTED] also stated that CO Crockett would come to segregation to see I/M [REDACTED] and again would be jealous if I/M [REDACTED] was also in segregation and talking to I/M [REDACTED]. I/M [REDACTED] also stated that on one occasion CO Crockett had offered I/M [REDACTED] his cross but that I/M [REDACTED] had refused the gift. I/M [REDACTED] stated she would take a polygraph to the above information but then changed her mind while taking it. I/M [REDACTED] gave the reason she would not take the polygraph after all was she just wanted it over and didn't want to get anyone into trouble. I/M [REDACTED] stated that the incident that Crockett is talking about in education was the day that I/M [REDACTED] was greensheeting and Crockett was mad that [REDACTED] had not accepted the phone number.

CO Nancy Gonzales: CO Gonzales was interviewed and remembered the incident when CO Crockett asked if she could look into the education bldg. inmate bathroom. CO Gonzales stated that CO Crockett stated that he thought two inmates might be with each other. CO Gonzales entered the bathroom but does not remember seeing two inmates nor did she infract any inmate during this incident.

Lt. John Larocco: Was interviewed and reviewed his records for the year 2002. Neither CO Crockett nor Gonzales wrote an infraction on Inmates [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] on the year 2002.

Physical Evidence: None

Investigative Notes: Later testimony received by Investigator Kelly from I/M [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] and CO Crockett had gone to a Days Inn Motel to have sex. A check was made of all Days Inns from south Seattle to Tacoma with negative results on the days in question. I/M [REDACTED] has been uncooperative during this investigation giving out only partial information.

SUBJECT: CASE 01-05-03 F01

On January 31, 2003, Intelligence and Investigation received information that an offender on active supervision had indicated to her Community Corrections Officers that she was pregnant by a Correctional Officer currently employed at Washington Correctional Center for Women (WCCW), shortly after her release to the community.

Correctional Specialist Steven Baxter and I interviewed offender [REDACTED], DOC [REDACTED], at the Chehalis Community Correction Office on January 31, 2003.

On February 3, 2003, I conducted an interview with the offender at the Chehalis Community Correction Office. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that she was 7 weeks pregnant and was going to terminate the pregnancy on February 6, 2003, at the Eastside Women's Clinic in Olympia.

Ms. [REDACTED] was released from prison on December 16, 2002. Upon release she attended a concert in Seattle with a girlfriend [REDACTED] where they remained until December 18, 2002. Ms. [REDACTED] said she and her friend stopped at a Grocery Store just before leaving Seattle, sometime between the hours of 6pm and 7pm, for hygiene items, where upon she came into contact with Correctional Officer Michael Crockett. After she initiated a conversation, they talked for awhile and then she gave him a phone number where she could be reached. During the course of their conversation, Officer Crockett asked if Ms. [REDACTED] wanted to go to a hotel. She and Ms. [REDACTED] then followed Officer Crockett for approximately 45 minutes to the Days Inn in Tacoma. Ms. [REDACTED] only recollection of the vehicle Officer Crockett was driving was that it was "a grayish silver" but couldn't remember the exact make.

Upon arrival at the hotel, Officer Crockett went inside and then came back to the vehicle and asked if she was ready. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that once in the hotel room, she and Officer Crockett drank Henessey and Coke and talked about the time she got caught with

██████████ in the bathroom before having sexual intercourse. Later that evening Ms. ██████████ said she and Officer Crockett had sexual intercourse twice; the first time he wore a condom and the second time he did not. Ms. ██████████ said the only reason she had sexual intercourse with Officer Crockett was because she had not had sex in 2 years and he treated her like a woman.

Ms. ██████████ remembered one particular event while at WCCW. She was housed in Close Custody unit and had gotten out of the shower and returned to her cell and found her toilet had been running. She then called the officer in the booth, Joe Luckett, who said Officer Crockett would be there to fix it. When Officer Crockett arrived he was able to stop the running of the toilet and said, "Is that better baby girl," and then touched her breast.

Ms. ██████████ said Officer Crockett would often let her out on early outs. On one occasion she fronted him off because he would not let her out early. He then made her "cell in" and then announced on the speaker that she "should not front him like that in front of the other offenders." Ms. ██████████ also added that when she was housed in the segregation unit, Officer Crockett would come and visit her.

At the end of our meeting I asked Ms. ██████████ if she would be willing to take a polygraph test and she declined stating that she did not want to get Officer Crockett in trouble, and that the sex was "consensual." I asked her if she would consider providing a sample of fetal tissue, and she responded in the same manner and stated that she was terminating the pregnancy.

Upon conclusion of this interview, I attempted to contact ██████████ and no person lived at the number that was provided. My supervisor and I also visited several hotels within the area of the Days Inn and there was no record of Officer Crockett or ██████████

POLYGRAPH EXAMINATION REPORT

TO: Investigator Steve Baxter
Department of Corrections
Washington Corrections Center for Women
PO Box 17
Gig Harbor, WA 98335

Subject:	[REDACTED]	Examination Date:	02/12/03
DOB:	Dec. 3, 1978	Offense:	Statement Verification
Requested by:	Investigator Steve Baxter

Purpose of Examination: To verify or refute the subject's allegations that she heard Officer Crockett offer to give Inmate [REDACTED] his phone number two days before [REDACTED] left the Corrections Center.

CONCLUSIONS

A polygraph examination was not administered to the subject due to her refusal to take the examination.

NOTE: When the subject arrived for her polygraph examination she complained about her blood pressure being high and was concerned about that affecting the exam. [REDACTED] was informed it would have no affect. [REDACTED] then stated she had some doubts about taking the exam. She was told that she did not have to take the exam, and she would not be placed into the "hole". [REDACTED] was given the polygraph examination statement of consent form and was told to read it over. [REDACTED] was left alone for approximately 5 minutes to decide if she wanted to proceed with the process. After the 5 minutes, [REDACTED] stated she wanted to continue with the procedure and signed the consent form.

During the pre-test interview, [REDACTED] stated the only thing she knew for a fact was that she over heard Officer Crockett offer Inmate [REDACTED] his phone number two days before [REDACTED] left the Corrections Center. [REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] told her about the necklace, and that Officer Crockett stands too closely to the inmates (invades their space). According to [REDACTED] that was all she knew.

After getting all the questions established, [REDACTED] was again concerned about taking the exam. She stated she did not want to be a snitch, and what little portion she knew may cause her more problems than it was worth. [REDACTED] was again given 5 minutes to make up her mind on whether or not to take the exam. After the 5 minutes, [REDACTED] decided not to take the exam.
